

Parker-Van Horn.

Special Dispatch to The Star.
HYATTSVILLE, December 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob O. Parker of Richmond, Va., announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Parker, and Mr. Robert Lee Van Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Van Horn of Brentwood, Prince Georges county, and a member of the Maryland house of delegates. The marriage took place yesterday in Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Van Horn will be at home after January 10 at 100 Cathedral street, Annapolis.

Richard J. Ward, thirty-nine, formerly of this city, died Sunday at a home of his mother, in Baltimore. He was born in Baltimore, but worked as a machinist in the navy yard here for about twelve years.

BECKERS
Folks Who Travel

—If you are planning a winter trip to the land of sunshine and flowers—or if your business keeps you on the go—you will find this store's stock of superior traveling goods equal to your most exacting requirements.

Becker's Baggage
Wardrobe Trunks, $18.50 up.
Dress Suit Cases, $6.50 up.
Traveling Bags, $5.75 up.
Fitted Bags, $19.50 up.
Week End Cases, $3.95 up.
Kit Bags, $17.50 up.
Golf Trunks, $13.50 up.
Hat Trunks, $8.50 up.

Becker's
Leather Goods Co.,
1324-1326 F Street

Thompson's
Double
Cologne
25c to $2.75

A dainty toilet and bath accessory that is constantly adding to its popularity among the refined.

W. S. Thompson
Pharmacy, 703 15th
FRANK C. HENRY, Prop.

Have Music
In Your Home

There's scarcely a reason for any home being without a piano or player-piano when we make such convenient terms of purchase.

Used $350 Ernest
Gabler Piano, $125
Many other bargains, like the above, during our disposal sale of slightly used pianos and players.
See us about our terms.

J. J. G.
G Street at 13th.

Headquarters for
HAMILTON WATCHES

TRIBBY'S
Rooms 301-302 Metropolitan Bank Bldg.
613 15th St. Opposite Treasury
TAKE ELEVATOR—3rd FLOOR.

The Raleigh
New Year's Eve

Music, Dancing and Special Features.
Tables now being reserved.

GILT-EDGE
5.95 Vacuum
Cleaner

TOHAP
SALES CO.
608 12th St.
N.W.

1325 14th

—That will be our new location in a few days.

Geo. Platt Co., Inc.,
Now at 1218 Conn. Ave.

Adolph Kahn
Agent for the
Hamilton Watches

17-jewel Hamilton Watches, in gold filled cases, worth $250, $130
Hamilton Watch Bracelet, $10
14-karat gold Hamilton Watch, 17-jewel adjustment movement, $85

A. KAHN, 935 F St.
Direct from Engraver to You.

Phone 1329
G St. N.W.
THE ENGRAVING SHOP.
"Old Fashions Please Me Best"
Antique SILVERWARE REPAIRED AND
PLATED to look and serve as well as ever.
JOHN A. GOTTMANN & CO.
100 PIERCE ST. N. 9093.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS
FOR PAN-AMERICANS

Secretary of State Gives
Luncheon and Mrs.
Lansing a Tea.

SMITHSONIAN REGENTS'
ELABORATE RECEPTION

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler and the Chilean Ambassador Are Among Hosts for Today.

Yesterday's social program in honor of the delegates to the Pan-American Scientific Congress included tea and reception by Mrs. Robert Lansing at her home from 5 to 7 o'clock, a luncheon given by the Secretary of State to half of the delegates and three dinner parties last night, followed by a reception at the new National Museum.

Today Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of the Metropolitan Club in honor of some of the delegates, and this afternoon the president of the congress, Ambassador Suarez of Chile, will give a reception to the official delegates to the congress at the embassy, 1013 16th street northwest, from 4:30 to 7 o'clock. This reception will be followed by a reception at the home of Mrs. William Phillips, Mr. Leland Harrison and Mr. Oliver Harriman.

Of the three dinners given last night, Senator and Mrs. Wadsworth of New York were hosts at one, having as their guests the minister of Peru and Mme. Pezet, Mr. Juan Ambrosetti of Argentina, Dr. V. C. Cardoso, Dr. Pedro S. Campos, Dr. P. Leme, Mme. Leme and Mme. Lattif of Brazil; Miss Adele Baranowski, Dr. M. G. Lanza, Dr. Sarasola, Jose R. Villalon and Jose Comallonga, Dr. M. L. Laura E. Obregon of Mexico, Dr. T. Oppen of Colombia, Mrs. T. L. Anderson, Mme. Hauge, Miss Patten, Mrs. Boling, Miss Catherine Britton, Mrs. John W. Truxton, Beale, her guests including Dr. Eduardo Pinerez, Dr. Rafael Alvarez, Dr. Carlos A. Mesa, Mr. Riva Sanchez and Mrs. Adolfo Berro Garcia.

The third dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Grosvenor, among their guests being Mr. John W. Foster, Misses Lansing, sisters of the Secretary of State, Mrs. Frank Polk, Mrs. William Cummings Story, Mrs. James and Mrs. Charles Sheldon, and Prof. Theodore S. Woolsey.

Mrs. Lansing's reception tea was in honor of the wives and the other women of the families of the delegates to the congress. Mrs. Lansing wore a beautiful gown of American beauty satin and old lace, and had receiving with her her husband, Mr. John W. Foster, Misses Lansing, sisters of the Secretary of State, Mrs. Frank Polk, Mrs. William Cummings Story, Mrs. James and Mrs. Charles Sheldon, and Prof. Theodore S. Woolsey.

At the reception at the new National Museum building last night, which was given by the regents and secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Mr. Justice Brandeis, and Mr. Justice McReynolds, the United States headed the receiving line, the line of guests forming in the art gallery and in the main floor of the museum. The Marine Band played patriotic and other airs in the rotunda.

In addition to the Chief Justice, in the receiving line, were Dr. Charles D. Walcott and Mrs. Walcott, Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, Mrs. John B. Henderson, Mr. John B. Henderson, Jr., Representative and Mrs. Roberts, Representative and Mrs. Brasher, Mr. Paul Brockert made the presentations.

Women Beautifully Gowned.
Mrs. Walcott wore a handsome gown of wistaria velvet, the skirt being a draped model and bodice softened with tulle. Mrs. Henderson was gowned in broad satin made in bouffant fashion, with tiny roses in Dresden style, garnishing the bodice. Mrs. Roberts' gown was of old blue satin over petticoat of gold lace, with iridescent trimmings on the bodice. Mrs. Ferris wore midnight blue tulle and jet.

Mrs. Daniels wore a charming gown of black lace and tulle. Mrs. George Barnett's costume was a superb creation of gold tissue over American beauty velvet. Miss Denys wore blue satin and tulle, and Miss Gwendolyn Denys' gown was of ivory lace over white satin. Mrs. Leonard Stejneger was gowned in white lace with touches of black velvet. Mrs. George Berger wore a gown of blue and gold brocade. Mrs. Malcolm McCord wore a midnight blue velvet gown. Mrs. Murphy, scarlet crepe; Mrs. George Gregory, pink tulle and tulle; Mrs. Hart, white gown; Mrs. George, white gown; Mrs. L. Rose, white satin with crystal trimming; Miss McMaster, black tulle and jet; Mrs. Mitchell, Capote blue satin and chiffon; Miss Jennie Mason Gibbs, blue brocade and gold lace; Miss Margaret, blue and gold; Mrs. Harlowe, white gown; Mrs. Lemuel Padgett, silver lace over white satin; Mrs. Carl Kellerman, pink brocade; Mrs. S. D. Palmer, blue crepe de chine and tulle.

Among the dinner hosts of this evening will be the assistant secretary of the navy and Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, the assistant secretary of state and Mrs. William Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin A. and Catherine E. Schlosser, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Spencer and Mrs. Thomas H. Duns.

Births Reported.
The following births have been reported to the health department in the last twenty-four hours:

Edmund H. and Louise B. Smith, boy.
Thomas E. and Susie Miller, boy.
Robert E. and Adelaide L. Graham, girl.
James J. and Katherine E. Hannon, boy.
Richard C. and Marguerite Dyer, girl.
Royal and Alice Dayenport, boy.
Harry J. and Matilda Goldthold, girl.
George and Martha Stewart, girl.
Benjamin A. and Catherine E. Schlosser, girl.
Raphael L. and Corinne Sahnafel, girl.
Ernest L. and Ellen E. Adams, girl.
Alfred E. and Lillian Wild, Jr., girl.
Peter B. and Margaret E. Bain, girl.
George W. and Mary S. Evans, girl.
Nelson and Sadie Edmonds, boy.
Henry and Rhoda Prather, boy.

Society

(Continued from Eighth Page.)

her coming-out reception given at the home of her parents at the Cordova. A holiday decoration was in place and was particularly effective in the dining room, where poinsettia blossoms formed the centerpiece on the table. Mrs. Kite was followed in embroidered white satin and net and the debutante wore white tulle, embroidered in silver, and carried pink roses, and her house guest, Miss Dorothy Fuller, of Annapolis, wore pink tulle over pink satin.

A buffet supper for the receiving party was followed by a dance, to which additional guests came. The assistants to the hostess were Mrs. John Culp, Mrs. P. L. Sundberg, Mrs. Cheatham, Mrs. Ladd, Mrs. Walcott, Mrs. E. H. Old, Miss Jane Gregory, Miss Dorothy Denett, Miss Edith Whiting, Misses Elizabeth and Suzanne Chase, Miss Helen Kimmell, Miss Marie Sims, Miss Mary Garland and Miss Dorothy Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wallace gave a dance at their home last night, Miss Sallie Beecher, a debutante for the winter.

Another dance last night was that given by Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer, giving a reception for the younger friends of their school girl daughter, Miss Catherine Littauer, who is home for the holidays.

The marriage of Miss Janet Borchard Walker, daughter of Mrs. George Harbison, to Mr. Robert B. Bright Ferguson took place last evening at 8 o'clock at St. Alban's Church in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends.

Rev. Charles T. Warner, the rector, officiated, and the beautiful Christmas decoration in place in the church, with bouquets of white roses and ferns on the altar, made an ideal setting for the wedding. There was a delightful musical program given by the organist before the ceremony, and the bride and groom were escorted by Mr. and Mrs. John J. Byrnes of Chevy Chase, cousin of the bride, the matron of honor, and Miss Margaret E. Evans, the maid of honor. Their gowns were of pink rose crepe, and the bride wore a gown of pink crepe, and the groom wore a tuxedo. The bride's bouquet was of pink roses, and the groom's was of white roses. The wedding cake was of white cake, and the reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. John J. Byrnes.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Dr. Walter H. Evans, wore an exquisite gown of white duchess satin, with an overdress of chantilly lace, garlanded with orange blossoms. The groom wore a tuxedo, and the bride's coronet of orange blossoms, fell in graceful folds to the end of her train and she carried a shower of bride roses and white lilies.

Mrs. John J. Byrnes of Chevy Chase, cousin of the bride, the matron of honor, and Miss Margaret E. Evans, the maid of honor. Their gowns were of pink rose crepe, and the bride wore a gown of pink crepe, and the groom wore a tuxedo. The bride's bouquet was of pink roses, and the groom's was of white roses. The wedding cake was of white cake, and the reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. John J. Byrnes.

The little flower girl, Miss Marie Louise Birchard of Cumberland, Md., wore a dainty white tulle and lace gown, and carried a basket filled with pink sweetpeas, and Master Almas Harold Walker, brother of the bride, wore a tuxedo.

A reception for the members of the two families and the wedding party took place at the home of the bride's mother, which was also attractively decorated with poinsettias, holly and Christmas greens.

Mrs. Walker assisted in receiving, wearing a handsome gown of black crepe, and with sequin trimming. Mrs. O. Harold Walker, the bride's grandmother, wore a gown of heavy black silk. Mr. Mrs. Ferguson left later for their wedding trip, the latter wearing a smart suit of dark green cloth, with a black velvet and gold lace hat. They will be at home after February 1 at 3410 Newark street, Cleveland Park, Mr. William M. Birchard and her daughters of Cumberland, Md., were among the out-of-town guests.

The bride is a daughter of the late George H. Walker, for fifteen years treasurer of the Gridiron Club and one of the assistant attorney generals in the Department of Justice. Mrs. Walker gave her daughter as a wedding gift the chest of silver presented to herself and husband by the Gridiron Club.

Mrs. and Mrs. T. Alton Russell entertained at a dinner last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Brunsbach, whose marriage took place recently. Christmas bells, holly and evergreens adorned the parlor and dining room. The table was decorated with a centerpiece of tiny pink roses and ferns and in the center were two of holly.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown, Miss Rita Brown, Mr. W. V. Brown, Mr. Robert Brown, Miss Agnes Brown, Master Edwin Brown, Mr. John Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Russell and their little daughter Marie.

The College Women's Club will hold a reception tomorrow afternoon, from 2 to 5:30, at the Home Club, Jackson place. Lady Aberdeen and Miss Sophronia Breckinridge of Chicago University and visiting college women will be the guests of honor.

The Washington Wellesley Club will hold its annual holiday and reunion at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Safford, 3333 Mount Pleasant street.

The club offers a cordial welcome to all Wellesley students and faculty, past or present, who happen to be in the city at this time.

Miss Marjorie Helmholt, daughter of Mrs. Charles D. Helmholt, a recent delightful acquisition to resident society circles, made her debut at a tea dance yesterday, given at Rauscher's, at which a very large contingent of the smart world of the capital was present. Mrs. Helmholt was the guest of honor, and the tea dance was transformed into a reception to the small ballroom, where the hostess and her attractive young daughter stood in the garden of roses and other house blooms.

ker, Miss May Kelley, Miss Mildred Carr, Miss Regenia Fries, Mr. Edgar Kellogg, Mr. William Crevelin, Mr. James Starr, Mr. Robert Stewart, Mr. Roy Metzger, Mr. Harry Maulding, Mr. Lew Howard, Mr. Hubert Sale and Mr. George N. Fries.

Mrs. Albert S. Walker of Prince Rupert, British Columbia, with her infant daughter, has arrived in Washington to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Stauffer of 3301 Jockey street, Chevy Chase, D. C.

Mrs. H. Tudor R. Harris, wife of Paymaster General Harris, retired, will not be at home on New Year day.

Miss Teresa Minahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Minahan, entertained at a luncheon yesterday, given in honor of her schoolmates, Misses Madeline Auglinbaugh, Mary Flaherty, Margaret Sheehan, Mae Liley, Loretta McGinness and Frances Holley.

Lieut. and Mrs. Patton Buchanan, who have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Buchanan in Bonham, Tex., have left for Philadelphia, where Lieut. Buchanan is stationed.

Mrs. Buchanan was formerly Miss Marie Carter of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Gilmore Eden entertained at a tea dance last night at their home, 2141 Mount Pleasant street, for their ward, Master S. Eden Thompson.

Miss Ann Lowen Thompson of Martinsburg, W. Va., the color scheme was red, in keeping with the holiday spirit, and this was carried out in both the decorations and the refreshments. Mrs. Anna M. Foster, Mrs. W. B. Bolls and Mr. H. Howard Leslie Holt chaperoned.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith have postponed the dance which they were to have given Friday, December 31, at 1213 Rhode Island avenue on account of illness.

Mr. Earl Powers of Baltimore was the guest for several days this week of Mrs. and Mr. Charles William Powers of the Cavendish.

Miss Gladys Tate, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tate of West Livingston Heights, Va., was quietly married to Mr. William Clifton Hall yesterday afternoon, 8 o'clock.

Only members of the two families and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. William L. Hoffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Hull left later for a short wedding trip. They will be at home to their friends after February 1 at Livingston Heights, Va.

Miss Helen B. Brown entertained at a dance Monday evening at her home on Massachusetts avenue. The guests included the Misses Portia Harrah, Helen Waan, Margaret Deeter, Alpha Pugh, Marie Brinkley, Irene Hardesty, Dell Gilbert, Messrs. Gene Harrah, Billie Gorton, Howard Bush, Russell Gilbert, Con Roberts, Roy Yaste, Prentice Sales, Lester Hardesty and Dr. J. J. Macaulay. The dance was attractively decorated with Christmas greens and bells.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Aspinwall entertained at a delightful dance last night in compliment to their daughter, Miss Margaret Aspinwall, who is home from school for the holidays.

Miss Gertrude Smith of Jersey City, N. J., is visiting Miss Blanche Stoddard of 13th street.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Lee Reynolds and their children of Lexington, Ky., are visiting the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Pearson of 1255 Lanier place. Mr. Reynolds and his family are en route to Newark, N. J., where he will take up a new pastorate.

Miss Helen Bodine of Bois Reynard, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, is a guest at the Hotel Grafton, having returned from Hawaii. Miss Bodine will spend February with Mrs. P. H. Overholt, Carolina Heights.

Mrs. H. O. Tucker and Miss Agnes N. Maxwell of this city are spending the holidays in Baltimore, with Mrs. Neveker of 1720 East Oliver street.

Mrs. Henry S. Breckinridge will be the hostess at the tea dance to be given this evening at Rauscher's in honor of Miss Robert E. Brunsbach, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wharton E. Lester.

Others giving dances tonight will include Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Brunsbach, who will entertain at the Country Club, and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Carter gave a dinner of eleven covers Tuesday evening. Miss Ruth Carter and Miss Ethel Mossell gave a musical program during the evening.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses have been issued to the following:

John C. Spencer of Chicago, Ill., and Mary M. Craven of this city.

Frank R. Reigle of Odenton, Md., and Gertrude Redmiller of this city.

Benjamin W. Klein and Hilda Weinberger.

Charles F. S. Andrews and Anne Tomlinson.

John F. Carper and May V. Capper, both of Winchester, Va.

Henry J. Reifnyder of Lebanon, Pa., and Emma L. Brugh of Spring Wood, Va.

Frank Smith and Clara Claggett, both of Chesapeake, and Emma M. Hatcher, both of Richmond, Va.

Robert Otha Dix and Ellen G. Hatcher, both of Decatur, Ga.

Edward N. Post and Hilda Ellinger, both of East Stroudsburg, Pa.

John H. Rowe and Mary B. Schwartz, both of Baltimore, Md.

David E. Roberts and Jessie M. Roberts.

Jacob Halpenay and Sarah C. Bell, both of Manassas, Va.

Cleburne-Hempstone Wedding.
Special Dispatch to The Star.

LEESBURG, Va., December 30.—The marriage of Miss Ida Lee Hempstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dade Hempstone, and C. Clifford Cleburne of Washington and Worcester, Mass., took place last evening at 8 o'clock at St. James Church. The church was decorated with palms and holly.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. W. H. Burkhardt.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a beautiful gown of ivory satin, veiled in tulle and rare old lace. Her tulle veil was arranged with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and valley lilies.

Miss Lillian Viers White was the maid of honor, and she wore a charming gown of blue green tulle and tulle and carried pink roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Katherine Beach of Washington and Miss Anna Snowden Wildman, who wore gowns of white tulle and silver lace and carried pink roses, and Miss Lee Edwards and Miss Mary Conrad, who wore gowns of pink tulle and silver lace and carried white roses.

Mr. Edmund B. Du Val Cleburne was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Messrs. Henry Cranford, Carlyle Whiting and Roderick Whiting.

From our large variety of "Open Stock" patterns of Table China the housewife can select the exact quantity and kind of china to meet her special requirements.

Dulin & Martin Co.,
1215 F St and 1214 G St.

Decorated China,
Service Plates,
Rich Glassware,
Sterling Silver,
Sheffield Trays,
Centerpieces,
Dinner Favors,
Punch Bowls,
Candle Shades, etc.

VERY table requisite is here—not only the richest things—but many requisites which suggest elegance and refinement, yet are inexpensive.

Undesirable qualities and designs find no place in these carefully assembled stocks.

Anything you desire for the table for entertaining can be selected here most advantageously.

From our large variety of "Open Stock" patterns of Table China the housewife can select the exact quantity and kind of china to meet her special requirements.

Dulin & Martin Co.,
1215 F St and 1214 G St.

Decorated China,
Service Plates,
Rich Glassware,
Sterling Silver,
Sheffield Trays,
Centerpieces,
Dinner Favors,
Punch Bowls,
Candle Shades, etc.

VERY table requisite is here—not only the richest things—but many requisites which suggest elegance and refinement, yet are inexpensive.

Undesirable qualities and designs find no place in these carefully assembled stocks.

Anything you desire for the table for entertaining can be selected here most advantageously.

From our large variety of "Open Stock" patterns of Table China the housewife can select the exact quantity and kind of china to meet her special requirements.

Dulin & Martin Co.,
1215 F St and 1214 G St.

Decorated China,
Service Plates,
Rich Glassware,
Sterling Silver,
Sheffield Trays,
Centerpieces,
Dinner Favors,
Punch Bowls,
Candle Shades, etc.

VERY table requisite is here—not only the richest things—but many requisites which suggest elegance and refinement, yet are inexpensive.

Undesirable qualities and designs find no place in these carefully assembled stocks.

Anything you desire for the table for entertaining can be selected here most advantageously.

From our large variety of "Open Stock" patterns of Table China the housewife can select the exact quantity and kind of china to meet her special requirements.

of Washington: Allen Duckett of Bladensburg, Md.; Frederick Hayes of Worcester and William Dade Hempstone, Jr., brother of the bride.

Several hundred guests were present at the reception following at the Hempstone residence, which was elaborately decorated in Christmas greens and poinsettias.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Arthur Cleburne, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Beach, Mr. and Mrs. William Burr Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Blackwell Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Elmon A. Miller, all of Washington.

Deaths Reported.
The following deaths have been reported to the health department in the last twenty-four hours:

John Williams Harkness, 63 years, 605 22d street northwest.

Josephine L. Hauger, 25 years, Homeopathic Hospital.

James A. Simonds, 42 years, 212 Florida avenue northwest.

Allen E. Hill, 55 years, Government Hospital for the Insane.

Sarah Louise O'Connor, 64 years, 618 E street northeast.

Adam Gaddis, 86 years, 225 A street southeast.

Francis Costello, 10 months, 919 4th street northeast.

William H. Garrett, 6 months, Georgetown University Hospital.

John Willis, 42 years, Georgetown University Hospital.

Elesia Brown, 25 years, Emergency Hospital.

Annie Mason, 51 years, 632 C street southeast.

Samuel Young, 70 years, 1818 Le Droit court northwest.

James Anderson, 42 years, Emergency Hospital.

Samuel Banks, 56 years, Washington Asylum Hospital.

Louisa Nelson, 65 years, 1642 Covington street northwest.

Ortho Norris, 11 years, Casualty Hospital.

Charles Robinson, 30 years, Emergency Hospital.

Will Present Portrait Saturday.
At a meeting of the Association of Oldest Inhabitants of the District of Columbia Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Rauscher's, a portrait of Theodore W. Noyes, president of the association, is to be presented formally to the association by citizens of the District. A brief business session will precede and an informal reception will follow the presentation.

Prices Slashed for Friday
on Dresses, Suits, Coats, Waists and Furs

Wonderful Fur Values
Muffs worth $4.98..... $2.98
Think of price.....
Muffs worth $10.00..... $6.98
Think of price.....
19.75 Fur Set..... $9.95
Think of price.....
Think of price..... $14.75

Serge Dresses
Worth up to $7.50..... $2.95
Think of price.....
Serge and Silk Combinations..... $4.95
Worth up to $12.50.....
Think of price.....

Serge, Silk and Velvet Dresses
Worth up to $19.75..... $6.95
Think of price.....

One-Dollar Lingerie Waists
50c

Latest Style Suits
Worth up to $16.50..... $7.50
Think of price.....
Worth up to $25.00..... $12.98
Think of price.....

Coats—All Materials & Styles
Worth up to $7.50..... $2.95
Think of price.....
Worth up to $12.50..... $4.95
Think of price.....
Worth up to $19.75..... $6.95
Think of price.....
Plush coats, worth up to $24.75. Think of price..... $14.95

Milton R. Ney 801 Pa. Ave.
Northwest

Our Fine Pastries Are Served
In Our Luncheon Department.

Order Reeves-Baked Pies,
Fruit Cake and Layer Cake
For New Year's Festivities